

Mr. Jack Ruby:
Dear sir:

I want to thank you for doing what every patriotic American SHOULD have felt like doing after the senseless slaughter of our president on our city streets. I feel that you did it for me, because I felt much better...I could at last sleep and eat and think straight, after I saw you shoot that unholy pig who dared to change the history of the world with his dirty finger! Who knows but what the security of the future of mankind might not have depended on John F. Kennedy? Perhaps life on this planet will cease, with nuclear war...because we no longer have the guiding hand of this fearless and brilliant leader. And this doesn't even mention what the act did to his wonderful wife and family...and to me, an American who helped elect him, and then was cheated out of his electoral capacity by this foul-minded imbecile!

And even more infamy now rests with Dallas in that the District Attorney wants the extreme penalty for you. Believe me, I am acquainted with Dallasites...plenty of them...who think ^{we} you should have your statue put in Dealy Square as the only really Patriotic person in Dallas Texas on November 24, 1963.

Sincerely yours,

Mrs. Margie Wheeler

Dallas Texas.
